Register Now

We are delighted to bring you 3 webinars in Chemical Regulatory Management in Asia, focussing on China, Korea and Taiwan, presented by CIRS.

CIRS is a global professional product compliance management consulting service agency, specializing in providing technical consulting and regulatory response services for chemical, consumer goods companies, scientific research institutions and industry associations. For more information see: www.cirs-reach.com (English) and www.cirs-group.com (Chinese).

The second in the series is “Korea REACH introduction”, and will cover:

- K-REACH background
- Existing chemical registration
- New chemical registration
- Korea GHS

Our Presenter: Dean Winder

Mr. Dean Winder is a member of CIRS Europe based in Dublin, Ireland. He combines his knowledge of the chemical industry and his research experience to provide regulatory consultancy services, specializing in the industrial chemical sector.
